6) In the oldest Munsiffs File 5 of 1896-97, a list is given of the Munsiffs' Institutions with the balances to their credit brought upto 30th June 1900. In the list of Institutions in the Channapatna taluk, mention is made only of 18 Institutions and the Institution in question viz. "Mathur Kailaseshwara" is not mentioned in this list. (vide Page 7)

7) It is only in the Annexure B to the G.O. dated 19th May 1926 that mention is made of this Institution with a debit balance of Rs 70-80, as it stood on 30th June 1925; and in para 5 of the said G.O. it is stated that "the final statements have been worked out and verified in the Comptroller's Office". From this, it is inferred that the institution in question did not exist when the first list was prepared after June 1900, that it might have come into existence only subsequently and continued to be so, at the time the final list was prepared in 1925, and that it might have subsequently become defunct, so much so, that its name ceased to find a place in the records.

The list gives the cash balances and investments of Imperial institutions in each taluk. It is not clear how ~~the omitting~~ writing off of the debit or credit balances of any of the institutions mentioned in the list can affect the balances of the other institutions mentioned in the list as stated by the Comptroller.

This does not arise

11 The connected file has since been traced. The Nailaseswara Temple at Mallur was originally a Muzrai institution having been endowed with a cash grant of Rs 21-13-0 but subsequently resumed to Government. In the year 1923-24, a sum of Rs 73-8-0 was sanctioned from the State grant allotment for "Repairs and Construction of Muzrai Institutions" for performing Kalakarshane and removing the idols of Parvati and Ganapati to a place of safety. From the accounts it is seen that the sanctioned amount was not drawn but the expenses were charged to institution funds with the result that a debit of Rs 70-8-0 is being continued since then. It is, therefore, recommended to adjust this debit from the closing balance of the General Muzrai Fund.
